City Council
City of Milpitas

Dear Mayor Jose Esteves
Vice Mayor Trish Dixon
Councilman Bob Livengood
Councilwoman Althea Polanski
Councilman Armando Gomez

The Knights of Columbus Milpitas Council No. 5796 are again putting on the free Thanksgiving Day dinners for the Poor, the Needy and the Lonely people of Milpitas and its surrounding communities. Many community hours are put into this event each year.

Last year we gave away about 1,500 meals and also free grocery bags of food, reaching 4,600 people in all.

As in the past, we have reserved the Milpitas Community Center's Auditorium and Kitchen for this community program. For the first time on a trial basis, we will be using St. John Church's Pavalkis Hall to serve the meals for the Poor, the Needy and the Lonely mainly because of its location. However, we still need the kitchen of the MCC because the Pavalkis Hall's kitchen is not enough to handle such an event. For the past five (5) years, the fees for the usage of such city facilities were automatically waived. The new Facility Director will charge the Knights of Columbus for its usage for a total of $889.00. This amount excluded the application fee and deposit for cleaning and damage.

The Knights of Columbus is a nonprofit organization. We respectfully request that the usage fees be waived.

Sincerely,

Dem Nitalan
Grand Knight
